

The Labrador Retriever Club of Canada Incorporated

Application for Membership

For online application:

1. Complete the application, including the nomination by two members in good standing, and attach it to an email to the Secretary.
2. The application will be brought before the Executive for approval/election as per Article 1, Section 3 of the bylaws.
3. Once your application is approved, you will be advised by the Secretary and you may proceed with payment of your membership fees.
4. Payment of your membership fees may be done by an e-transfer to the Treasurer, who will advise the Secretary when payment has been received. Your membership will not be active until payment has been received.

For standard hard-copy application:

Return the completed form, along with a cheque for payment to:

APPLICATION FOR WEBSITE LISTING

A web page has been set up to assist in directing the public to club members that wish to provide such services as puppy sales, stud services and general education on the Labrador Retriever. Inclusion on the web page is available to all LRCC, Inc. members regardless of their access to the internet as the contact information can be an email address, telephone number or both. No street addresses will be listed. By filling in this form and forwarding it to the LRCC Inc., you are giving the LRCC Inc. permission to publish your personal information on the website.

The following rules apply:

- Any member in good standing may have a listing on this web page.
- A change of email address or telephone number can be submitted to the Secretary at any time, and will be updated on the website during quarterly scheduled revisions.
- A member may remove their information from the web page at any time. Once a member has removed their information it may not be reinstated until their membership is paid for the following year. Each listing will have a minimum of a name (first name is okay if a kennel name is listed), email address and/or telephone number, city and the colour of Labradors you have (B, C, or Y).
- All listings will be grouped alphabetically by province in kennel name order (if listed) or by last name if a kennel name is not listed.
